The scale systems by Carl Flesch and Ivan Galamian are by no means the only in existence, but they have been the most widely used by violin students and teachers for many years. The systems are different in profound ways and each has valid applications for the modern violinist. Both Galamian and Flesch were master teachers, each from a long line of violin pedagogues.

No thinking individual should be engaging in such behavior and Galamian and Green should be ashamed of themselves. At least re-write the entire work if you intend to 'rape' unsuspecting students and customers for a book. But using slick legal tricks to enable you to deceive others is an intellectual crime.
